TF IT went on an imaginary trip, I would probably go way back in time to the Chill War I like learning about it in social studies and we have allot of information on it, but there's probably alot more to know. IF I did go I would try to meet famous people like Abraham Lincoln and ask him questions such as Ilow did it feel being the leader of the Union troops in the Chill War? I would like to go to one of the battles fought in the war like Fort Sumter, but hapefully I wouldn't get right in the middle of it and get hurt. I would try to get more information on what happened at the theater when Lincoln died. I think going back to the Civil War would very interesting but hopefully I wouldn't get Score Point: 4 This response reflects proficiency in narrative writing. The writer organizes the response into an introduction, three paragraphs illustrating key ideas, and a conclusion. Although adequately developed, key ideas could be further illustrated. The writer displays adequate facility in the use of language, and very few errors are present in conventions.
